comprehensive care

From the simplest polishing of a stain to the most complex types of treatments on offer, we carry out our work to the highest standards using quality materials and the right amount of time to do the job properly. We want you to feel that trusting your dental care to us was the best decision you have made about your dental health.

emergency care

We offer regular Saturday appointments and our own on-call rota, and can give advice over the telephone or arrange to see you in the event of a serious emergency that cannot wait until our normal opening hours. Please ring the practice for the on-call dentist contact details on 0844 8151551

code of practice

We strive to offer excellent customer and clinical care. If your experience falls short of your expectations please tell us so that we can improve our service. Please tell our reception team, or contact John Adams if you wish to make a comment or complaint. Further details of our Code of Practice and Complaints Procedure are available on our website.

cancellations

If you are unable to attend an appointment with us, please give at least 24 hours notice to avoid a cancellation charge.

about^{us}

Amsel & Wilkins Dental Practice offers you comprehensive dental care in a relaxed and friendly environment, where your comfort and wellbeing is our guiding principle. We will take time to listen to you and understand what really matters to you about your dental health and smile. Your dentist will discuss any issues that arise from our thorough examination, and give you choices and the time to make the best decisions regarding your treatment.

We are passionate about the fantastic benefits that recent advances in dentistry can offer, and are committed to continuous professional development to keep up to date with developments in modern dental care. Our biggest satisfaction is seeing the smile on our client's faces when we have helped them, and seeing the friends and colleagues that they recommend to us.
